

Unit 2: "Jonah and the Fish"

Main Idea: This story reminds us that God is bigger than our ideas about God. God calls us to love and serve the world, even when it makes us uncomfortable or angry. And God is willing to help us do that, even when we don't want the help.

Bible Verse: Let those who love your saving help say again and again: "God is great!" (Psalm 70:4)

Overview:

- The Book of Jonah is a parody. Filled with humor, irony, and unexpected twists.
- The story begins with God's call for Jonah to preach a warning to the Israelites' enemy city, Nineveh.
- Jonah wants to avoid offering the Ninevites a chance to escape destruction, so he flees on a ship.
- God sends a storm, but Jonah would rather drown so he gets thrown overboard.
- God sends a large fish (whale perhaps?) to swallow him and spit him on land.
- Jonah finally goes to Nineveh.
